The latest thing in automobile construction arrived in Barre yesterday when E. A. Drown, president of the Oldsmobile Company of Vermont, drove in from Boston with a brand new Velie six. This car was immediately put on display in his salesrooms on North Main street, and was the center of attraction for a great many automobile owners throughout the day.

The Broadwell murder case seems to be sensational enough to a great many of the newspapers throughout the country so that pictures of the victim and her alleged slayer and also of her family are displayed on the front pages. A paper which contained a detailed account of the murder and the opening of the trial reached here yesterday from Omaha, Neb. It was the Omaha Bee.

Robert Christie suffered a painful injury to his right hand Tuesday while engaged at his work of lumping at the Martinson Estate Co. Mr. Christie was splitting a board by means of a circular saw when the member slipped and came in contact with the rapidly revolving saw, cutting away the flesh on the outside of the thumb. The services of a doctor were necessary but unless an unforeseen development sets in, Mr. Christie will be able to start work in 10 days.

All of the railroads under federal control have been asked by the administration to give attention to protection against accidents on the railroads. Most of the accidents on the railroads are attributed to carelessness and ignorance. Every humanitarian has been asked to give his time and energy during a short campaign to support this cause. Many ministers of Barre as well as in other places will preach on a subject next Sunday that will deal with this safety first question. Scores of very interesting statistics have been compiled concerning accidents and results of accidents on the American railroads. You may hear these at almost any church Sunday, Oct. 19.

Yesterday's Burlington Free Press had the following item regarding the marriage of Miss Cecil Place of St. Albans and George E. Ronald of that place, the bride being a former resident of Barre: "A pretty wedding took place at St. Mary's church yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock when Miss Cecil Place, daughter of Mrs. M. M. Place, became the bride of George E. Ronald, son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Ronald. Miss Ruth Whalen of Burlington was bridesmaid and Harold Kennedy acted as best man. The bride wore a blue traveling suit and carried a prayer book. After a trip to New York, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald will reside at 113 North Main street. Among those from out of town who attended the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. E. Tobin, Mrs. Henry Hodgdon of Barre, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Taylor and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Bechtel of Burlington, E. D. Barbieri and Miss Avery of Waterbury."

RED CROSS NOTES

The annual meeting of the Barre branch of the American Red Cross was held Wednesday evening with a good attendance, and the reports of the various officers showed that, although without much ado, the branch had been quietly doing a great deal in the work of the organization.

Officers were elected as follows: President, Mrs. N. D. Phelps; vice-president, Mrs. Lewis Martin; recording secretary, Mrs. Frank Martin; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Guy Varnum; treasurer, Mrs. George Bond; chairman home service department, Mrs. F. E. Robinson; chairman sewing department, Mrs. F. E. Langley; chairman knitting department, Mrs. S. N. Parker; executive committee, Mrs. John O'Leary, Mrs. N. S. Love, Mrs. W. A. Mathieson, Mrs. F. W. Robinson; auditor, Miss Pape; publicity, Miss Newton.

The treasurer reported the total expenses for the year to have been $2,876.87.

Mrs. F. W. Robinson, chairman last year of the sewing department, reported that the following articles had been sent to the Boston headquarters from Dec. 1, 1918, to Sept. 1, 1919: 135 convalescent gowns, 100 property bags, 100 bath towels, 150 gents' handkerchiefs, 15 napkins, 175 hand towels, 60 sheets, 90 suits of pajamas, 60 comfort bags, 200 ladies' chemises, 160 girls' dresses, 180 morning jackets, 80 women's aprons, 400 pinafores, 60 children's undershirts, 50 children's nightgowns, 40 girls' petticoats, 40 girls' drawers, 20 girls' chemises, 45 layettes; total, 2,530.

From Mrs. S. N. Parker, chairman of the knitting department, came the following report of work completed in the year: 354 sweaters, 1,340 pairs socks, 120 pairs children's stockings, 17 scarfs, 82 pairs wristers, 17 helmets, 7 caps, 4 arghans, 4 eye bandages, 1 ear protector, 6 three-yard bandages, 30 wash cloths, a total of 1,982 articles.

In the home service department, from Feb. 1, 1919, to Oct. 1, 1919, the number to whom a service was rendered, to a soldier or a member of a soldier's family, was 768. Number of family calls, 93; total expense, $703.19.

One feature of the Red Cross work in Barre during the year was the conducting of a first aid class during last winter, about 20 receiving certificates. On the welcome home day the Red Cross float took first prize and the same organization maintained first aid tents at the City park and the trotting park that day, both of them filling a much-needed want. These were financed by the Barre Woman's club.

Some branches of the Red Cross have voted to disband, now that the immediate war work is over, but the Barre branch has voted to continue its work along whatever lines the organization develops. More sewing has been ordered and also yarn for knitting, and from time to time it is expected there will be plenty of opportunities for service in the organization.

The annual roll call for memberships comes Nov. 4 to 11.
